

Scottish Squash Interim National Performance Coach Position

An exciting opportunity has arisen within Scottish Squash for a Squash Coach to oversee the delivery of the Scottish Squash Coaching programmes for a two-month period from 14th March until 11th May 2018. We are seeking a coach with strong ethical values and exceptional coaching skills: a qualified, experienced and innovative squash coach who is reliable and responsible and will support the players and deliver enjoyable and challenging squash sessions. We are looking for a team player who will command the respect of players and help them to enjoy their squash and become better squash players.

The role will be a 20 hour a week role and the coach will deliver squash sessions (approximately 15 hours) and administration (approximately 5 hours)

The job will be based at the Scottish Squash Headquarters at Oriam, Heriot Watt University, Currie, Edinburgh EH14 4AS. The coach will be responsible for leading sessions with our senior national players down the pathway to the national junior programme. The coach will also assist the squads representing Scotland at the European Team Championships 2018.

In return for your work we have a budget of £2,400 for the interim role. You will also have the opportunity to work within the National Governing Body for Squash, in Scotland's Premier High Performance centre, Oriam, and gain experience and involvement in a well-respected national squash programme

Applications: Please send a CV and letter of application stating why you want the role and what you can bring to the Scottish Squash performance programmes, to Paul Bell, Scottish Squash National Coach, paul.bell@scottishsquash.org. Please call Paul on 07845 670433 for an informal discussion about the role.

Please submit your application by close of play on 2nd March 2018. Interviews will take place week commencing 5th March 2018.
