Welcome

On behalf of everyone at Scottish Squash, I would like to welcome you to Scotland and to the City of Edinburgh

We extend our welcome to all the players, officials and guests attending the Home Internationals and we hope that your visit proves to be an enjoyable experience, especially for those who may be visiting the city for the first time.

These are always special events, particularly for those selected to represent their country for the first time. But whether or not it is your first 'cap', I am confident that everyone will give their best and enjoy the whole experience. Whilst the competitive nature of our sport is never in question, the good spirit in which all matches are played is always an impressive feature of these events.

Aside from the competitive nature of the weekend, it is sure to be an enjoyable time socially and many will look forward to renewing acquaintances and/or making new friends. I am not sure that there will be much time for sightseeing but I would encourage visitors to take the opportunity to see more of the city should it be possible.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Edinburgh Sports Club for hosting the 2019 Masters Home Internationals. A Special thanks go to the full team at Edinburgh Sports Club for their time during the weekend. We extend our thanks to the staff team at Scottish Squash for their support in the organisation of this event and to the referees and volunteers who will be supporting across the weekend.

We wish all teams the best of luck for the competition.
