Application FAQs

WHO CAN APPLY?

- People who are a resident of Scotland
- Those aged between 14 and 30 at the time of application

WHEN CAN I APPLY?

Applications open on Monday 13th June and close at midnight on Friday 15th July.

HOW DO I APPLY?

The application form is available here

The application form begins by gathering some personal details about yourself followed by 4 questions to help us to understand why you'd like to be a part of the panel and capture your experiences in sport.

The information you supply us with throughout the application process will not be passed to any third parties or be used for any other purposes.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER I SUBMIT MY APPLICATION?

Members of our staff team will review the applications. All applicants will be informed if they are successful or not in their application by the end of July.

If you are not successful – Please don't be disappointed! We will provide feedback to all applicants, and we would hope that you would use this feedback to support you to apply for our next Young Ambassador Programme cohort in future.

If you are successful – You will be invited to the next stage of the recruitment process which will be an in-person recruitment day during August. The day will consist of some group tasks with other applicants and a small, relaxed interview with members of our staff team.

After the recruitment day, we will then make a final decision as to who will represent Scottish Squash as a Young Ambassadors.

WHERE CAN I FIND OUT MORE INFORMATION?

If you would like more information on the recruitment process or to learn more about the panel, please do not hesitate to get in touch with Jack Brodie at Scottish Squash using the email below, who will be more than happy to help.
